The New York Times
Communities Fund

2025 CAMPAIGN IMPACT

7,793 girls

in rural Africa supported through a year of secondary school, including school fees, uniforms, and supplies, with CAMFED.

1,004 families

maintaining housing stability, and 493 children and their families receiving wraparound support to enhance early intervention and special education services with Catholic Charities Archdiocese of New York.

810 New York youth

engaged in after-school and holistic education programs, and 1,457 received vision screenings and free glasses with Children's Aid.

835,200 students

at under-resourced schools across the country accessing books and other critical literacy support with First Book.

1,508 young people

receiving a year of instruction, advising and support proven to dramatically increase postsecondary success with OneGoal.

2,452 low-income Americans

provided with everything they need to participate in tuition-free IT training and increase their prior earnings by 2.5x with Per Scholas.

1,117 New Yorkers

enrolled in vocational training or courses such as ESOL and GED to open doors to well-paying jobs, and 1,230 older adults combating social isolation through virtual senior center classes with UJA-Federation of New York.